	Insurance Institute of Canada- Career Connections 	The Career Connections Program is an insurance and career education program. The program has two interconnected elements: Curriculum Connections: Builds an understanding of insurance principles among junior high and high school students by encouraging the inclusion of insurance in the curriculum and to build an understanding of insurance among teachers by offering various education resources. Career Connections: Increases awareness and understanding of the numerous professional employment opportunities in the insurance industry among high school and post-secondary students. By enhancing the perception of insurance as a professional career, we can encourage a greater number of candidates to choose insurance as a career, thereby working to fulfill the industry need for new talent. The Institute's Career Connections team is supported by industry professionals who act as Ambassadors on behalf of the insurance industry. 	The Canadian Welding Association  www.cwa-acs.org	EDUCATION It's a great time to be a welder. A huge number of our current welders are retiring or will be, soon. This means that there is a huge demand for welders in the industry. Welding is an extremely important component to many industries in Canada. In fact, you can say, that without welders, many construction projects, bridge building, vehicle manufacturing processes, computer electronics plants, plastics manufacturing and even our space program would come to a standstill.	Resource Link
