

If you are you an employer working in

JUSTICE, COMMUNITY SAFETY & EMERGENCY SERVICES

Read on to find out how to become involved in the Specialist High Skills Major program in our local high schools

A Specialist High Skills Major (SHSM) is a specialized program where high school students focus their learning on a specific area of study, in this case, Justice, Community Safety & Emergency Services.

Students in the Justice, Community Safety & Emergency Services SHSM take courses in high school that are focused on sector-specific knowledge and skills.

They also must complete specific training programs and two cooperative education credits that refine, extend, apply and practise their skills in the Justice, Community Safety & Emergency Services sector.

Students in high school taking the Justice, Community Safety & Emergency Services SHSM could be interested in a variety of careers at every different educational level, including:

- Court Recorder
- Firefighter
- Police Officer
- Security Manager
- Animal Control Officer
- Correctional Officer
- Emergency Services Dispatcher
- Probation Officer

As an employer in a Justice, Community Safety & Emergency Services career you are able to help area students complete their SHSM successfully! On the right are some ways you can get involved. Contact us today if you are interested.

This SHSM is offered at the following area high schools:

- ❖ Brantford Collegiate Institute and Vocational School

How can you get involved?

- Welcome a co-op student into your workplace for one of more semesters
- Offer tours, class talks, and information about your career to students
- Invite a student to job shadow an employee for the day
- Assist students with career exploration
- Offer training programs in one of these areas:
 - CPR
 - Conflict Resolution
 - WHMIS
 - First Aid
 - Emergency Response Techniques
 - Marine Safety/Marine First Aid
 - Fall Protection
